Licensee agrees to preserve the confidential and trade secret status of the Software. Except as specifically provided for herein, Licensee shall not reproduce or duplicate any of the Software, and shall not reveal, publish, transfer, disclose, disseminate or distribute the Software to anyone other than those of its employees who have a "need to know" in the ordinary course and scope of their employment. Licensee shall not make any telecommunication or transmission of the Software, nor shall Licensee merge, modify, reverse compile, disassemble or reverse engineer the Software without the express written consent of an authorized officer of Licensor. Further, Licensee shall not use any of the Software to develop a system or software similar in function to the Software.

Licensee agrees that any violation of the provisions of this Section shall cause irreparable harm to Licensor. Accordingly, in addition to any other remedies available to Licensor under contract law or equity, Licensor shall be entitled to injunctive relief in the event of such a breach (or an explicit threat thereof), including a temporary restraining order, without any requirements to post bond therefor.

Licensee will promptly notify Licensor in the event that Licensee becomes aware of any unauthorized person obtaining access to any of the Software and will identify such unauthorized person for Licensor.
